Watson Joinery Contractors and Llanrwst Interiors

I would like to introduce myself, I'm Dewi Prys-Watson, of Tan y Benar, Dolwyddelan.

My family comprises of; Leisa, my long suffering wife, two children, Iago Dafydd and Modlen Iid, 2 goldfish Tomos and Jac, and 2 hens, Magi and Martha.

Leisa works full time at DEFRA as a field officer, and we also run the family farm at Cefn Brith. Our stocking levels are currently 325 head of welsh mountain sheep and 35 head of Pedigree Welsh Black Cattle.

My main occupation is as a joiner, and I am currently in my 26th year of running 'Watson Joinery Contractors'. We offer a wide range of building and joinery services, ranging from remedial work to new build.

I served as an apprentice for four years at a kitchen manufacturing factory at the old school at Corwen. Then, in 1991 I was offered the opportunity to work at Grosvenor Estate in Chester. My duties were to maintain and renovate property and farmhouses. Most of my summer of '92 was spent repairing and splicing the Duchess's pitch pine stables!

Currently, along with my long time friend Peter, we run Llanrwst Interiors and Blooming Blinds. A small shop in Watling Street, Llanrwst offering unique ideas and quality kitchens, bathrooms and blinds. As a family run business, we offer a personal service with vast experience of kitchens, bathrooms and all building and Joinery.

I am in the privileged position of loving my work. Working as a joiner has brought me great satisfaction and guaranteed work.
