Dolwyddelan War Memorial

As next year will see the 100th anniversary of the ending of World War One, I am trying to collect as much information about the brave men and boys that are commemorated on Dolwyddelan's war memorial as I can, with the tentative aim of a commemorative booklet for charity.

I have the bare details of, and the place that each man fell, and where they are buried, but unfortunately, so far, I only have personal details and photos for a few of them. If one of the men was a member of your family, or you know of anyone that may have a family member on the memorial, could you please contact me with any personal information that you may have.

Finally, is there anyone who would like to join me in this research, or indeed, do you know if the research has already been done elsewhere?

Diolch yn fawr,
