

Is your Council Tax bill correct? Should you be paying less?

There are many people in Wales who are not aware that they could be eligible to pay less Council Tax.

From April, the Welsh Government is running a campaign to ask everyone to look at the information available on gov.wales/counciltaxhelp and to contact their local authority if they think they are eligible to pay less.

RAIDER OF HEN ROOSTS TRACKED DOWN

The residents of the Lledr Valley, and the inhabitants of Dolwyddelen of late, have been very much disturbed by strange manifestations on the adjoining mountain, where it is said the shepherds have seen a diminutive hairy man skipping from rock to rock and emitting a strange sound.

The disappearance of fowls and fruit was associated with the strange visitor, and it was decided to assemble a party to hunt the mysterious thing and if possible, to imprison it.

The shepherds joined in the chase, and the adjoining mountains were searched without result, until the party reached the vicinity of Penmachno, where shepherd John Roberts, Talargerwin, was startled by a fierce ejaculation. Looking behind a rock, he saw a strange animal, and struck at it with his stick rendering it insensible, he then discovered that the strange visitor was a monkey. Escaped probably from some private collection.
