

BRYN-Y-BEDD

Dolwyddelan cemetery is getting some much needed love and attention from the Community Council, supported by County Councillor Liz Roberts.

Three Rowan trees have been planted to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, surrounded by heathers in a new bed.

The trees were given by the Conwy branch of CPRW (the Campaign for the Protection of Rural Wales) and planted by their chairman Joyce Hughes.

When Joyce approached Phil Vipond, the County Council's Environment Officer, he suggested Dolwyddelan for the planting and his staff kindly helped deliver the trees.
